Questions

How does each of the reasons cited for the warning in this passage spur us to heed it?

How can we check, and what should we do to ensure, that we are paying careful attention to and obeying what Jesus says?

My Response: Our Response during the service is an act of worship. Do submit your reflections online to <http://bfec.sg/response> or via whatsapp or sms to 9670 1800.

Holy Communion: We welcome baptized believers to join in the Lord's Supper.

Tithes & Offerings: Giving as "unto the Lord" is the privilege of every disciple of Christ. As an act of personal & corporate worship, we encourage members to participate purposefully through regular giving during worship services.

Sermon Series 1
(9 Jan—24 Apr)
“Jesus, Our Supreme and Sufficient Saviour”

The book of Hebrews was addressed to believers who had put their hope in Christ, but were daunted by the reality that following him did not mean less but may even entail greater suffering and hardship. How should Christians in similar circumstances today respond?

As Hebrews exhorts us, we must not give up, but hold fast to Jesus, our supreme and sufficient Saviour. And as we hear the message of Hebrews in this 14-part sermon series, may the Lord help us indeed to “hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful.”

Date	Bible Ref	Sermon Topic	Speaker
23 Jan	2:5-18	Jesus: The Pioneer of Our Salvation Through Suffering	Deacon Lee Yen Ter
30 Jan	3:1-4:13	Fix your thoughts on Jesus	Bishop Emeritus Dr Robert Solomon

“Journey Through Hebrews”

As a supplement to the Sermon Series, Frankelites may use this 60-days e-devotional produced by Our Daily Bread Ministries. (<https://journeythrough.org/courses/hebrews/>). This is written by Bishop Emeritus Dr Robert Solomon, who is one of our guest speakers.
