QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

1. How would you define Humility? Can one be assertive while being humble?
2. What does it mean when the bible tells us that humility precedes honor and that pride comes before destruction? Is it always true?
3. Pride despises wisdom, whilst humility seeks wisdom. Do you agree with this statement and why? How has this been seen and demonstrated in your life and those you know?
4. Explore the many ways that Jesus demonstrated Humility. How can we model Jesus?
5. How can one be more humble and practice humility?
6. How has God spoken to me in this morning's sharing and what will I do differently?

Missions Sermon Series
“Proclaiming Faith” (3 - 24 Jul)

Jesus’ return (Matt 24:4-14) is certain. The signs of the end times will see the world turn against each other amidst disease outbreaks, war turmoil and natural disasters that will result in great suffering. Many will be left hopeless and in despair. Believers will not be spared. They will be persecuted, some tortured while others face the loss of lives. Yet the worst of all, many will lose their faith and turn away from God.

However, the end does not come without a complete proclamation of the gospel. Perhaps God will use technological innovation and light-speed global communications to fulfil his purpose. However, the judgement of the world beckons, and we cannot sit back and watch events unfold. God calls each of us accountable for bringing the message to the lost (Acts 1:8).

This Missions month, we consider God’s faithfulness to BFEC and the progress we have made as a church in Missions. Our guest speakers will explore how global developments will shape the unfinished task of missions, as they also share about specific parts of the world where they have a missional focus. This will inform and challenge us about the role the Singapore Church can play to keep in step with this new and exciting journey. Last but not least, we look at what is BFEC’s response to this rapidly changing landscape and how we can rise up and take the gospel to the ends of the earth.
